

DUTIES OF A TRAVEL COMPANION

- The Travel Companion will stay in the same hotel room with the Veteran.
- The Travel Companion must be able to push the wheelchair of the Veteran, if needed.
- The Travel Companion must be able to carry their own luggage as well as the Veteran's.
- The fee for a Travel Companion is $1,200.00, which will cover airline, hotel, bus and meals. The Travel Companion fee can be paid when you return this form or can be paid at the pre-flight meeting.
- While there will be a medical team on the trip, the Travel Companion must be knowledgeable of the Veteran's medical concerns and medications.
- Please be aware that the Honor Flight committee may ask you to assist with other Veterans.
- You must be able to assist with lifting and mobility services to the Veteran you are a Travel Companion for, if needed. This requires all Travel Companions to be in good physical shape.
- The Travel Companion will not leave the Veteran unattended at any time.
- Spouses, significant others, partners, or fiancées are unable to serve as Travel Companions.

By signing this form, the Travel Companion agrees to pay $1,200.00 for their portion of the trip. If the Travel Companion is unable to attend, their $1,200.00 will be refunded or the Veteran may find an alternate Travel Companion. Also, by signing this form, the Travel Companion states that he or she is in good physical condition and agrees to the duties of being a Travel Companion as stated in the portion "Duties of a Travel Companion."

I (Travel Companion) agree to these conditions. _____
